

Developing Hospitality and Business Leaders

As a Business Leader you know how important it is to master the latest knowledge and expertise. Traditional week-long executive programmes, however might not fit your schedule; and online training programmes can lack the richness of live interaction with facilitators and other participants.

A UNIQUE LEARNING APPROACH

To meet your demanding schedule and individual education requirements, we invite you to participate in a one-day or two-day seminars with a flexible, and integrated approach. We build Executive Development Programmes for our participants and include all realities and scenarios. We connect top-floor strategy with shop-floor operations & implementation. Quality is not to pretend to know and do everything; it is to identify the most appropriate resources (internal or external) and combine these forces for maximum impact.

We have strong linkages with Ecole hôtelière de Lausanne (EHL), Swiss Hotel Association and EHL's alumni network of 25'000 alumni located in 120 countries over all 5 continents.
